

In EYFS, you learnt:

- to count confidently
- to recognise a number of objects (up to five) without counting

Key Vocabulary
object	colour	less label	size	most group	shape	fewest
search	value	the same image	data set property	more

These objects go in this group because _____

The label I would give this group is _____ because _____

Computers aren't smart (intelligent) because _____

All these objects are the same because _____ I think the property that all these objects share is _____

These two groups are the same because _____

These two groups are different because _____

By grouping these objects in this way I can tell you that _____

Key Facts

- objects can be counted, grouped and labelled
- computers are not intelligent and require input from humans
- properties can be used to group objects
- a group of objects can be grouped in different ways

