

Knowledge Organiser: Computing

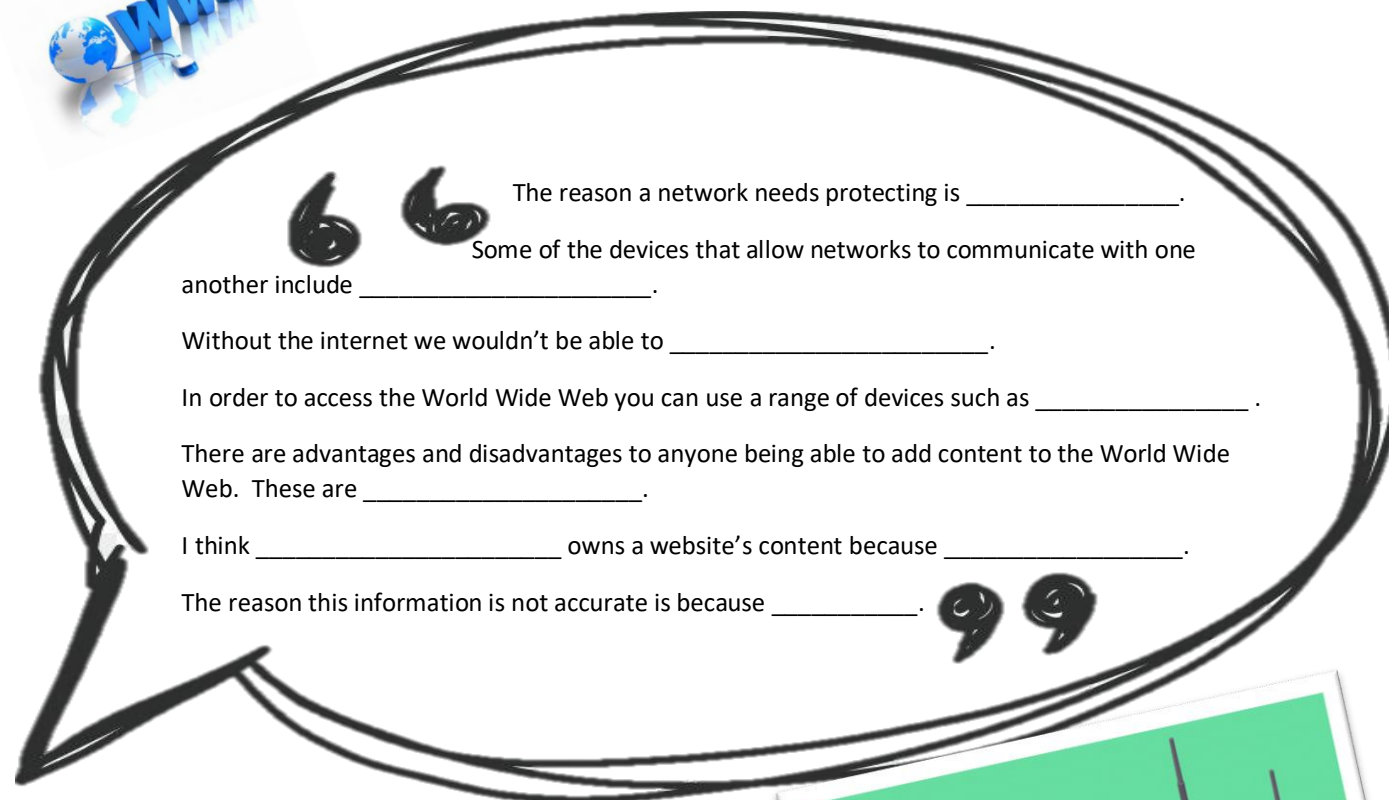

Computer Systems and Networks – The Internet

In Year 3, you learnt:

- what input and out devices are
- how digital devices can change the way we work
- how digital devices can be connected
- what the physical components of a network are
- that some computers on a network have a specific function

Key Vocabulary

internet	wireless access point (WAP)	links	permission network	website	files	information router	web page	Website	accurate network	web address	use	honest security	routing	download	adverts switch	web browser	sharing server	content	ownership

Key Facts

- the internet is a large network that enables computers to share information
- the World Wide Web is part of the internet which contains websites and web pages
- the World Wide Web is part of the internet
- not all websites are as reliable as others
- not everything they see on the internet is true, honest, or accurate

