

In Year 4, you learnt:

- digital images can be changed for different uses
- not all images are real
- to select and use different editing tools
- that changes can improve an image

Key Vocabulary

video	lens	low angle	review	detele audio	close up	normal angle	import	trim camera	mid range	static camera	split	reorder talking head	long shot	zoom	trim	export panning	moving subject	pan	clip	evaluate close up	side by side	tilt	edit	share microphone	high angle	storyboard	reshoot

“ The features of this video include _____

There are many different types of filming techniques. These are some of them _____

This filming technique _____ is useful when you want to _____

When filming I will use these techniques because _____

To improve my video I will use these _____ the following tools _____ ”

Key Facts

- video is a visual media format that consists of moving pictures, which can include audio
- digital devices can record video
- video can be improved through reshooting and editing

