

Key Learning

- To understand the purpose of instructions – to tell how to do or make something, to give information on how to complete a task
- To use a title to tell the reader what your writing is about
- To include a list of ingredients or equipment needed
- To put the steps in chronological order
- To use bullet points or numbers to separate steps
- To use bossy verbs

Key Vocabulary

title	method	steps
separate	bossy verbs	bullet point order

What should I already know?

- How to write a simple sentence
- How to orally retell a process using time words and present tense verbs

Organisation for your writing

Feature	Tick
A title to tell the reader what your writing is about.
You need to include a list of ingredients or equipment
Your writing needs to be in numbered steps
Your writing needs to be written in time order
You can use numbers or bullet points to help to organise your writing

Bossy Verbs

cut	mix	chop put	clean	take
go	stir	wash