

Key Vocabulary

hot	cold	mild	wet	damp	fog
snow	rain	sleet	thunder	lightening	ice
sun	Winter	Spring	Summer	Autumn	weather
forecast	thermometer	rain guage	weather vane

In Reception, you learnt:

- Winter is usually cold and it sometimes snows
- Summer is usually hot and sunny
- Autumn starts warm and gets colder; the leaves fall off the trees.
- Spring starts cold and gets warmer; new animals are born and plants start to grow

To protect me from the sun, I need...

Today's weather forecast is...

Today the temperature is ..°C. I need to wear...

When it's really cold, I need to wear...

My favourite season is ... because ...

To look after nature in the Winter/Spring/Summer/Autumn, we can...

Key Learning

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbols on a weather map (online or on TV) • What clothes to wear in different weathers • Weather forecasters can predict the weather using special instruments | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Temperature is measured in °C. • There are typical patterns of weather within the seasons but these vary from day to day. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We have to protect our bodies from the weather by wearing clothes, hats, sun cream and sun glasses. |
|---|--|---|