

Key Vocabulary

England	Scotland	Northern Ireland	Eire	Wales	North
South	East	West	map	atlas	globe
key	symbol	Sphere/spherical	aerial view	hill	border
direction	landscape	equator	London	Edinburgh	Cardiff
Belfast	Dublin	Irish sea	North Sea	English Channel	North pole
river	ocean	South pole	local	distant	Compass
physical feature	human feature	World	continents

In Year 1, you learnt:

- Countries and capitals of the UK
- Seas around the UK
- About Hollybush School and where it is in Hertford
- The seasons

I can use a compass to...

Maps are different to globes because...

To the North, South, East and West are...(on maps and in person)

I can find ... (locations and landmarks) on a map/globe.

Key Learning

- |  |  |   |
|--|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Maps allow you to see the spherical World on a flat piece of paper.</li> <li>• Compasses show you which direction you are facing.</li> <li>• Compasses have to be set to point North.</li> <li>•</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Maps use symbols to show you where features are.</li> <li>• Maps can show physical and human features</li> <li>• Maps have keys to show you what the symbols mean.</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Maps can show things like temperature, rainfall and how people use their land, as well as what features are in a place.</li> </ul> |
|--|--|---|